Bulletin Ads. Bring Trade

Just as the buzzing, busy bee Goes forth in search of honey,
So should the busy business man,
By seeking trade, find money.
And as the bees that buzz the most Find most of sweets they prize,
The cream of trade will always go
To those who advertise.

HONOLULU, TERRITORY OF HAWAII, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1902

ATTORNEY GENERAL DOLE REBUKED

Called Down Sharply By Judge Gear from the Bench.

ATTEMPTED TO INTRODUCE UNPRECEDENTED PLEADING

The Court Refuses to Entertain a Protest --- The Attorney General Promises to Come Again.

Attorney General E. P. Dole was severely rebuked by Judge Gear from the bench this morning. He had interrupted the trial of George Wade to request leave to file a protest against the retrials of "transition period" prisoners.

Judge Gear informed him that such a thing as a "protest" was unknown to the pleadings. If the Attorney General disagreed with any proceedings of the Court, he had a right to enter exceptions to the Court's ruling. That Court knew no such form of pleading as a "protest."

"I am surprised," the Judge went on, "that a man of such learning and experience as the Attorney General should presume to enter such a proceeding. The Court is surprised that the Attorney General should put himself in such a position as to ask such an unheard-of proceeding."

Mr. Dole then said: "I desire to make a statement." "The Court is engaged in trying Territory of Hawaii vs. George Wade. If you have anything to say regarding this case the Court will listen to you."

Mr. Dole said his statement had reference to all of the "transition period" cases, and was told by the Court that nothing would be heard at present which was not related solely to the case on trial. The Attorney General then retired, after saying, "At the end of the trial of this case I shall appear again."

At yesterday's session Dr. Wood and Sydney C. Boyd were called. Boyd was the man Wade was trying to shoot when he killed Gillespie, but the efflux of time had made him an unwilling witness. His evidence was bent to palliating the deed of blood.

The Court rose on a question as to the bearing of drunkenness upon the guilt of a homicide.

Mr. Biting opened argument on the question this morning before the jury entered. Deputy Attorney General Cathcart having stated that murder in the second degree was the highest offense he would ask the jury to find, the Court asked him to define that crime.

Mr. Cathcart answered that it was killing with malice aforethought but not deliberate premeditation.

Mr. Biting argued that the statutes made drunkenness an extenuating circumstance for all degrees of homicide from murder in the first degree down ward.

Mr. Cathcart made remarks in reply, when the Court asked him how the jury were to find manslaughter. His answer was that the law authorized the jury to find such a verdict.

Judge Gear observed that the law said so, yet did not point out the reasons why the jury should find such a verdict.

Mr. Biting quoted from Wharton to prove his point, but was interrupted by the remark from the Deputy Attorney General that the case cited was of one so drunk that he did not know what he was doing.

Mr. Biting argued further and closed saying he had authorities covering all States he named, but would not take up the Court's time in reading them.

CHINESE IN A MIX-UP

GO INTO COURT SOON

CHINESE IN A MIX-UP

Old Members Making Proposals for a Compromise --- Bow Wongs Stand Out Stubbornly Against Them.

Chinese New Year is the time in the year, above all others, when the Chinese of the Territory wish to have peace and harmony on all sides, but from the present difficulty between the two factions of the Chinese United Society, it would seem that this happy state of affairs cannot be brought about. Heretofore, Chinese New Year has always passed off in the islands in a most satisfactory manner. There will be a difference this year.

There is being a great effort made to unite the two factions but, as yet, no progress has been made. The old members who met the other day and elected officers contend that they have some rights in the society and that they should be allowed recognition on the official board. The Bow Wongs, or the major portion thereof, who are now in control of affairs, are very stubborn and refuse to accede to any requests.

The old members, headed by Wong Kwal, Goo Kim and others, propose that both sets of officers, recently elected, withdraw entirely from the field and that an entirely new set, composed of representatives of both sides, be elected.

The Bow Wongs have already made reply to this suggestion and their answer is that the old members will be allowed five men on the board of trustees and the same number on the advisory board. As there are fifteen men on each of these committees, it will be seen that the old members would only have a one-third representation. As to the regular officers, the Bow Wongs refuse to give up a single place. This, then, is no concession at all and is not in any way a compromise.

All this transpired yesterday and the result is a deadlock.

Meetings are being held this afternoon by both factions, but it is hardly likely that any better results will accrue.

If the Bow Wongs do not give in and compromise the matter, the old members will bring an injunction suit in the Circuit Court against them and the society hall will be closed pending a settlement of the trouble in the courts.

The Bow Wongs, headed by Al, have already made their preparations for a big reception on Chinese New Year and have fixed up the hall of the United Society to some extent. If the injunction issues, there will be no reception and the Chinese colony will thus be shut out from an event it has always looked forward to with happy anticipation.

The old members are willing to waive the contention that the last set of Bow Wong officers chosen were elected illegally; if the men now in power will only come forward with a reasonable compromise. The latter have the balance of power in their favor and, it is thought that, considering all things, they should be willing to give in a little for the sake of peace and harmony on all sides.

BOAT CLUB BENEFIT

Tickets are selling rapidly for the big benefit for the Myrtle and Healan boat clubs at the Orpheum next Friday night.

Some extra fine local talent has been secured and everything looks as though there is going to be a large attendance.

Ernest Hogan is busy preparing some specialties which will no doubt prove highly entertaining and Billy McClain with Madame Cordelia will contribute largely toward the success of the performers, with good acting and singing.

LITTLE BROWN BOYS MUST OBEY

Judge Humphreys Says
Mrs. Holloway is in Contempt.

MOTHER SHOULD COMPEL CHILDREN TO OBEY ORDER

C. A. Brown Will See His Children Every Alternate Saturday or Court Will Know Why.

Mrs. Irene H. Holloway was declared in contempt of court by Judge Humphreys this morning, under citation to show cause why she had not complied with an order allowing her former husband, C. A. Brown, to visit their two minor children at stated times.

No fine was imposed, but the respondent was given to understand that the order of the Court must be obeyed to the letter.

J. A. Magoon and T. I. Dillon appeared for the order and Robertson & Wilder for the respondent, who was present with the children. The first point to be settled was the motion of respondent to have Judge Gear try the merits on the grounds stated in a court report elsewhere in this paper.

This motion was opposed at length by Mr. Magoon, who said it was the first time such a proposition came under his notice since he began practice in 1885. If it were allowed, let it be emblazoned on the walls of the court. "Parties here are allowed to choose their judges." With several judges the consequent squabbling would be awful to contemplate.

Mr. Wilder replied in few words, disclaiming any attempt at choosing judges. It was simply a case where Judge Gear had received confidential information from the children themselves, which had probably guided him both in making the order and in refusing a process to prevent the removal of the children from the court's jurisdiction last year.

Judge Humphreys denied the motion, holding there was no reason why the same judge should adjudicate any particular matter to the end. In this case, Judge Gear had requested him to hear the matter, saying he had peculiar reasons for transferring the case, and the Court will bound to believe that his brother judge's reasons were good and sufficient without inquiring into them.

Mr. Wilder then presented a demurrer which denied the jurisdiction of the Court, and held that the motion to show cause did not state facts sufficient for cause of action.

Judge Humphreys did not desire to hear argument on demurrer. He should overrule it according to 110 Wisconsin page 625, which had been received at the Law Library day before yesterday.

Mr. Wilder now read the answer of Mrs. Holloway to the citation. It quoted letters between the respective attorneys already appearing in the pleadings, also a later one from Mr. Magoon of January 4, just before the departure of the respondent with the children for California, insisting that the children should come to Mr. Brown at once. To this Mrs. Holloway's attorneys replied that the children did not wish to see their father and would not be forced to go to him against their will.

The answer further recited the terms of the decree of divorce granted to respondent, which gave her the custody of the children, and told of her appointment later as their sole guardian. Next, the respondent declared in her answer that she withdrew and repudiated any consent theretofore given by her to the order of the Court. Finally, she denied that she had personally violated the order of the Court.

Mr. Magoon remarked that the facts being admitted, it only remained for the respondent to show cause. He considered that the law points should be argued at that stage.

Mr. Wilder rejoined that it was up to the movant now to prove that the respondent had violated the order.

NEW K. OF P. LODGE TO BE ESTABLISHED

Application Blanks Will Arrive Here Very Soon.

THIRTY MEN NOW ON CHARTER MEMBER LIST

New Organization Will Be a Memorial to the Late President McKinley --- Some K. of P. Figures.

Honolulu is to have a new lodge of the Knights of Pythias providing the Supreme Chancellor on the Mainland will give his consent. The names of thirty well known men have already been secured as charter members.

A request for application blanks was sent to the Keeper of Records on the Mainland by the steamer of January 15 and an answer is expected by the next boat. The application will be sent forward by the first opportunity and it is expected that the new lodge can be in working order inside of two months' time. The men who are attending to the preliminaries have every reason to believe that their petition will be favorably received by the Supreme Chancellor and that the requisite charter will be forthcoming.

HONOLULU METHODIST LATE PUBLICATION OF CHURCH MEN'S CLUB

Report of Epworth League Doings
--- Various Events Mentioned ---
Reading Course for Season
--- Study of Wesley.

The Honolulu Methodist, a small semi-weekly paper published by the Methodist Men's Club of this city, in its last issue gives the following report of the Epworth League:

The good secretary has started off the new year with a new and revised book that will cause her successors for a long time to come to rise up and call her blessed.

Mrs. Pearson led the devotional meeting two weeks ago today, and invited quotations of Bible verses beginning with the letters of the subject, "Evangelize." Responses were prompt and edifying. It was a good meeting.

The treasurer has been beaming ever since the meeting last Sunday evening, when, at his suggestion, a collection was raised to clear up a balance due on the church debt.

Some people who had dollars kissed them good-by and gave them gladly.

The joint social and literary meeting at Mrs. Walker's was a success from the tramcar ride to the last glass of lemonade.

Mr. Loring was much complimented on his very interesting and instructive treatment of the lemming canal and wireless telegraphy topics he introduced a discussion of these subjects in which many of the learned leaguers engaged. Games and happy social chat filled out an evening of great pleasure.

The third vice president is to be congratulated on the interest which is being taken in the splendid reading course which she is so wisely directing for this season. At the meeting of the literary class at the parsonage on last Monday night were to be found as good-looking and intelligent a set of young people as it is one's pleasure often to meet.

The life of John Wesley was taken up with real interest. At the next meeting, the second Monday night in February, one of the bright young ladies will read a paper on Wesley's early life and wise and unwise members will ask and answer questions. Come.

DELIGHTS OF WAILUA

D. W. Shelhamer, well known in Honolulu, and who is now in the employ of the Wailua Agricultural Company looking after its water interests in the mountains back of Wailua, writes glowingly to a friend of the fine climate up there, and how good the bracing air makes one feel. Plenty of blankets are in demand at night. "I am sure," he writes under date of January 30, "we had light frost for three nights before last night." And yet people go abroad to get a breath of "bracing" air.

ORPHEUM LAST NIGHT.

In spite of the inclement weather, a fairly large audience attended the Orpheum last night to see the new bill of "A Hot Time in Blackville."

The play was somewhat of a rhapsody, inasmuch as the audience hardly knew what was coming next and soon learned not to be surprised at anything. The interpolation of the double sextet "Tell me pretty maiden" instantly caught on and the singers were called out several times to repeat their act. The finale of the show consisted of some parts from "El Capitán" and "Pinafore" which were well acted and proved extremely laughable.

CHINAMAN IN THE WAY.

The Honolulu Rapid Transit Co. has struck a snag on the line of its Waikiki extension in the shape of a Chinaman who refuses to allow the tracks to go over what he claims to be his premises, secured by lease from the late Judge McCully many years ago.

COMING FIELD EVENTS

Will Take Place at
THE KAPIOLANI TRACK
List of Invitations Sent to Various Athletic Organizations of City
--- Answers Expected
Soon.

The athletic committee of the Boys' Brigade is at present at work making arrangements for the big field day which is to be held for the purpose of raising funds for the establishment of an athletic field in this city. The committee, which consists of W. W. Harris, C. Tracy, M. A. Cheek and E. B. Clark, has sent communication to Oahu College, the Kamehameha schools, St. Louis College, the Honolulu High School, Iolani College, the Kamehameha Alumni Association, the Honolulu Athletic Club and the Mailelilima Athletic Club. These communications state the object of the meeting and ask for the assistance of these bodies for the field day.

It has also been decided to ask the Oahu Polo Club to play a game of polo on that day, as it is hoped that this will attract a class of visitors which would not take an interest in the other events.

The field day events will probably be held at the Kapiolani Park track as this has been found to be the most suitable place. Besides the standard fourteen athletic events, arrangements are also being made for comical features.

It has been suggested by one of the members of the committee that the victors of the events be given wreaths and this suggestion will probably be adopted.

The committee will meet on Saturday afternoon. It is hoped that by that time answers from all the institutions will have arrived, thus enabling the committee to make more definite arrangements with regard to the order of the events, etc.

HUSTED'S DIRECTORY OUT.

Husted's Directory of Honolulu and the Territory of Hawaii for 1902 has appeared and is now being delivered to patrons. This useful volume is compiled on the same plan as it has been in previous years, giving the names, occupations, places of business and residences of the adult population of the islands, also a complete classified business register and much valuable descriptive and statistical information. The volume is neat, compact and exhaustive and is almost indispensable to business men. The mechanical work of the directory is very ordinary.

SAID HE WOULD RETURN.

Frank Peterson appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of drunkenness and was sentenced by Judge Wilcox to one month's imprisonment at hard labor.

Frank is an old offender and yesterday morning he appeared in the Police Court and was fined $10 and costs. At that time, he was still under the influence of liquor.

PORTUGUESE CHURCH TO ADDRESS WRIGHT

A meeting of the Portuguese Evangelical church was held on Thursday evening last and, at that time, temperance matters were thoroughly discussed, it being the unanimous opinion of the church members present that some active measures should be instituted at once to do away with the rapidly spreading evil in the city and the Territory at large.

LIBEL FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. La Vaucha M. Gray has brought suit for divorce against C. H. Gray on the ground of non-support for a year past. She alleges that her husband has been perfectly able to support herself and two children but that he has repeatedly refused to do so, thereby compelling her to maintain herself and children by her own energies. Mrs. Gray asks for an absolute divorce and the custody of the two children. W. W. Thayer for the plaintiff.

WAILUA TOTAL WRECK ON KAUAI

Washed Ashore at Anahola on Sunday During Big Storm.

VESSLS VALUE FIFTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS

Was Partially Insured--Owned By E. G. Carrera and Was in Paiai Business for a Time.

Another one of the island schooners has been scratched off the boards. It is the schooner Wailua, which went ashore at Anahola, Kauai, on Sunday night and is a total loss with all her cargo.

Captain Irvine of the vessel reported to Captain Gregory of the steamer Mikahala that he arrived at Anahola on Saturday last and found it too rough to discharge his cargo. He tried to get to sea, but the bar was mountain high with breakers, and so he moved over to the anchorage, where he lay safely all Saturday night and part of Sunday. Sunday afternoon a tremendous wave came in, and, picking the little vessel up, hurled her high and dry on the beach. Other waves pounding on her sides soon completed the work of destruction.

The Wailua was recently purchased from Nelson Lansing by E. G. Carrera, who ran her between Kahului and the Leper Settlement with paiai. She was in bad condition and her trips were a series of accidents. Recently she was brought to Honolulu and repaired and started out on the Kauai run. Now she will remain on Kauai. She was valued at about $1500 and insured for about half her value.

A COWARDLY ASSAULT

Davey, a sailor of the barkentine Alta and a Britisher, has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of a Norwegian known as "Ed," who is on the same ship with him. When he appeared at the police station this morning to swear out a complaint, he was a sight to behold, his face being badly cut and bruised in several places.

Davey said this morning: "It was at about 2 o'clock yesterday morning that I heard a noise up on deck. I went up to see what the matter was and found that a number of the sailors were drunk. As I walked on the deck, Ed, a Norwegian, struck me in the face, knocked me down and then kicked me. I was knocked almost senseless. The blows came as a surprise to me and I was not able to defend myself."

"Ed and I had a fight some time ago and I whipped him. He has treasured this up against me, and this was the cause for his action yesterday morning. The whole of the crew of the Alta are Norwegians. I am the only Britisher aboard."

MASS MEETING SATURDAY

The committee in charge of the mass meeting decided on by the Territorial committee of the Republican party at its meeting Monday night, has decided on Saturday night as a fitting time and the drill shed as the best place. All arrangements have not yet been completed but some of the speakers have been asked. Senator Achi and Representative Aylett have given their consent to address the mass meeting. The Republicans will protest against:

1. The Leper and water bills of Delegate Wilcox.
2. Any movement toward the disfranchisement of the native Hawaiians.
